Civil Action No.

COMPLAINT

Harold Ramis & Focus Features, plagiarized my published copyrighted, intellectual property, by taking from a movie script I sent them, & 15 other actors & directors. In my published letter of introduction, I told them I was from Wichita Falls, a town with no falls. Visiting a bed-ridden 95yr. old man at age 5 I asked him where are the Falls in Wichita Falls, he answered, "There are no falls in Wichita Falls." When the town consisted of Saloon, liquor, & General Store, a gent from East Coyst had letter to send via Wells Fargo Stagecoach. Wanting to get a return address he asks, "What's the name of this place?" Like poetry in motion & drunken Indian named Wichita fell off his donkey. Another drunk announces, "Wichita Falls." So gent put Wichita Falls for return address. In movie Joe Harwood they use or print, "As Wichita Falls so falls Wichita Falls," my published intellectual property.
